This Directory is or

The first section is composed of the organizational units of ARS. The indentation scheme reflects the ARS organizational heirarchy and page references.

The second section is an alphabetical list of all employees in the organization with appropriate telephone numbers and page references.

The third section is the main body of the Directory showing individual names, titles, phone numbers and addresses. The sequence of this section coincides with the ARS organizational structure.

Corrections and updates should be forwarded to the appropriate Area Administrative Office or Headquarters Division Office.
